

Do not implement any rule that would supercede Indiana's Telephone privacy law. It has been very peaceful for the first time in many years not having the phone ring every evening with sales calls!